

Media
Release

29 April 2009

Bent Art 2009 – Continues To Attract Strong Local & Regional Support

With just over a month to go before the 5th annual Bent Art exhibition (Australia's largest exhibition of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender art), the event continues to attract strong local and regional support.

“In addition to our major local sponsors (Wall To Wall, Wentworth Falls Animal Hospital, Robert Tinsey Solicitors and Katoomba Fine Art), we've also had support from a range of other local and regional organisations and businesses “said Bent Art 2009 President, Pamela Hourani

“The Mountains Community Resource Network is again auspicing Bent Art and we've also attracted support from the Central West with Cumulus Wines of Orange providing their award-winning ROLLING label wines for Bent Art Opening Night in 2009” said Hourani.

“As well, we hold a raffle during the exhibition and this year we've had terrific support from some of the Mountains best known brands including Silks Brasserie, iKOU, Josophans Chocolates and Megalong Books. In the current economic climate, this level of support is testimony to the commitment and pride that our community has in supporting Blue Mountains arts and culture”.

“We're also thrilled that established Blue Mountains artist, Jane Lennon, has agreed to curate Bent Art. Jane brings knowledge, passion and a great artistic eye to this important role” said Hourani

Bent Art runs from 5-8 June in the Katoomba Civic Centre, 81 Katoomba Street. For more information you can visit the website at www.bentart.com.au.

- END -

For more information contact Dianne Davis on: 0417 257 791